for a protective order, is yet forthcoming. Applicant further understands that at that time Intervenor will be required to demonstrate the exceptional circumstances necessary to justify a protective order. Accordingly, Applicant will respond to Intervenor's arguments on the propriety of a protective order at that time. Assuming Intervenor's motion for a protective order is timely filed, Applicant does not object to the Board treating the QC inspectors' identities as confidential "in the interim."

Respectfully submitted,
