Gentlemen:

Baltimore Gas and Electric Company has received your request to participate in the investigation of the subject generic issue. While we normally welcome the opportunity to participate in the resolution of generic issues, such participation is always contingent upon the availability of sufficient resources to do the job properly. Unfortunately, current and projected demands on our resources hinder our ability to participate in this effort in any meaningful way.

We regret any possible misunderstanding in earlier discussions about our willingness/ability to participate, and we look forward to being able to provide comments on the results of your investigations if you so desire.

Very truly yours,

AEL/WPM/vd
