SUBJECT: ALLEGATION GUIDANCE MEMORANDUM 96-02 - ASSURING THE TECHNICAL ADEQUACY OF THE BASIS FOR CLOSING AN ALLEGATION

The purpose of this Allegation Guidance Memorandum (AGM) is to assure that the responsible technical branch chief agrees with the response being provided as a basis for closing an allegation. This requirement is being added in response to a recommendation from the River Bend Review Team.

The basis for closing an allegation must be reviewed and concurred in by the responsible technical branch chief. The branch chief's concurrence may be documented in an E-mail or a memo from the branch chief to the allegation coordinator providing the basis for closure, through concurrence in the closure letter, or, in those cases where the branch chief issues the closure letter, his or her signature. Such documentation should be included in the allegation file.
