rather than say "non safety significant" i would say "matters not requiring immediate action" because almost everthing has some safety significance the focus is the immediacy. otherwise i concur

[illegible]

Jim -- OI submitted comments along the same lines, i.e., "Matters not of an immediate public health and safety significance..." replaces "Non-safety significant matters..."

As with the other offices on concurrence, may I accept this as OE's official concurrence with comment? -- Rosetta
