RE: Termination of NRC License No. 48-12816-01
Briggs & Stratton Corporation
1706 South 68th Street
West Allis, Wisconsin 53214

Dear Mr. Mullauer:

On December 20, 1996, TN Technologies removed one Ohmart nuclear gauge at the Briggs & Stratton 68th street foundry. The gauge was leak tested, shutter checked and packaged according to NRC regulations and then shipped by common carrier to TN Technologies facility in Round Rock, Texas. TN Technologies has taken ownership of the Ohmart gauge pursuant to their Texas Radioactive Material License No. L03524.

We've enclosed a completed NRC Form 314, the field survey report completed by TN Technologies at the time of removal, relevant shipping documents and statement completed by TN Technologies acknowledging receipt of the radioactive material.

In accordance with 10. CFR 30.36 (b), Briggs & Stratton has decided to terminate all activities involving materials authorized under license no. 48-12816-01. The enclosed documentation should be sufficient to allow NRC to terminate the license. If you have any additional concerns or are unable to process our request, please contact me at (414-259-5333, ext. 4210). We appreciate your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Briggs & Stratton Corporation
