Dear Dr. Bagne:

I am responding to your July 25, 1996, letter returning the First Notice and a copy of the Second Notice (Overdue) sent to Farmington Hills RAD Oncology for Invoice AM4576-96 for License No. 21-26516-01. You state you no longer have the license and requested termination in October and November 1995. License 21-26516-01 was terminated December 8, 1995, based on your October 27, 1995, request.

The annual fee invoice for FY 1996 covers the period from October 1, 1995, to September 30, 1996. An amendment request filed after October 1 of each fiscal year to cancel a license does not cancel the annual fee invoice. Footnote 1 of 10 CFR 171.16 provides that the annual fee is waived when a license is terminated prior to October 1 of each year. Since your October 27, 1995, request for termination was not timely filed for purposes of avoiding the FY 1996 annual fee, Invoice AM4576-96 is due and payable. However, your FY 1996 annual fee was prorated based on your October 27, 1995, letter and the NRC's regulations (10 CFR 171.17) which provides that materials licensees who filed for termination during the period October 1, 1995, through March 31, 1996, of the fiscal year are assessed one-half the annual fee.

An NRC Form 526, Certification of Small Entity Status is enclosed. If you determine Farmington Hills RAD Oncology meets NRC's small entity size standards and so certify by completing and returning the NRC Form 526 for FY 1996, the annual fee would be reduced. Because the amount billed under Invoice AM4576-96 reflects a 50 percent proration of the annual fee, the amount due would be 50 percent of the amount shown on NRC Form 526 for the size standard under which Farmington Hills RAD Oncology qualifies for each fee category reflected on the invoice. Payment of the reduced fee should be sent with the completed NRC Form 526 to the address listed on the invoice.

The enclosed forecast report shows the amount currently due, including interest and late charges that have accrued. However, I will waive all interest and late charges if payment of the annual fee is received within 30 days from the date of this letter. If payment is not received within 30 days, all late charges will be assessed.
