Attention: Radioactive Materials Licensing - Industrial Radiography
Subject: Preliminary notification of ownership change license 12-00622-07

Dear Sirs:

International Testing Services has issued a formal notice of intent to purchase MQS Inspection Inc. This letter serves as the preliminary notification of a possible change of ownership of MQS Inspection Inc. We predict that the following information will be an accurate representation of conditions as it relates to our license and license activities.

- a) These proposed changes will not affect the name and address of the licenses as exhibited in conditions 1 and 2 of license 12-00622-07.
- b) There will not be any changes in personnel named in the license and the qualification and certification practice of radiation safety personnel (assistant radiographers, radiographers, etc.) will remain the same.
- c) MQS Inspection, Inc. could not remain in business without our USNRC license 12-00622-07.
- d) A complete, clear description of the transaction will be provided if, and when the transaction occurs and the information becomes available.
- e) There are not any planned changes in equipment, procedures, or personnel. Organizational changes are not expected to change or change to the extent that it would adversely affect the control and use of licensed material. If any facility changes are made, the appropriate amendment requests will be submitted.
- f) There will not be any changes concerning the use, possession, or manner of storage of licensed material as a result of the expected change in ownership of MQS Inspection, Inc.
- g) All records as currently prescribed by applicable regulations, and our license are and will be maintained current as part of our ongoing license activity.

- h) The license 12-00622-07 authorizes certain byproduct material for industrial radiography purposes. All radioactive material possessed by MQS Inspection, Inc. are in sealed form. The form of the material, along with the current surveys, and leak tests, and reporting requirements ensures the absence of radioactive contamination at our facilities.
- i) The transferor and transferee agree to the change of ownership of MQS Inspection, Inc. As previously stated, the name of the licensee and the control of licensed material will not change.
- j) All conditions of the license will remain the same therefor all constraints, conditions, requirements, representations, and commitments identified in the license will remain in effect and will continue to be applicable to our licensed activities.

This preliminary notification is provided in order to avert any licensing problem in the event of a successful transfer of ownership of MQS Inspection, Inc. The sale of MQS Inspection, Inc. appears imminent even if the purchase by International Testing Services is not successful. We predict that all information provided in items a) through j) of this letter will be applicable regardless of purchaser. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

MQS INSPECTION, INC.
