Dear Mr. Kinneman:

Subject: Inspection Report No. 030-17476/84-01

This is in response to your letter dated June 5, 1985, same subject.

The property in question, a gas chromatograph, containing a Nickel 63 detector cell, was transferred to our Anchorage, AK office February 1, 1983. The gas chromatograph has not been used since it was removed from the Washington Navy Yard location.

However, the office in Anchorage is preparing to place this item in use, and is delaying this operation pending instructions on applying for a license. Please contact Dr. Robert Bunney, 701 C Street, P.O. Box 56, Anchorage, Alaska 99513, in relation to this procedure. Dr. Bunney may be reached at (907) 271-3033.

The paper work recording the transfer and receipt of this property is enclosed. The records were maintained in the Property Management Section of the National Capital Administrative Support Center, located in Rockville, MD. Should you have any other concerns regarding the records pertaining to this transfer, please contact Ms. Karla Timmons, (301) 443-5790.

Sincerely,

Charles L. Wagner
