REA - DU-023

Reference (Drwg. No., Spec. Sec., Etc.)	Reviewer	Comment	Resolution
	TAC	Is is really necessary for the contractor to move garage contents? Surely occupant could do this.	It is true that the owners are capable of doing this, but they are also capable of doing some of the excavation and restoration work, and we do not ask them to do this work either. Asking the owner to move and store the contents of the garage is not in keeping with the philosophy of UMTRAP. This would place a burden on the owner/occupant that we have not done in the past.
	TAC	Lumping all "Rebuild Garage Storage Room" costs into one item worth $1,240 is very unspecific compared to 11 sf of concrete at $3.50* each. Why so different an approach? *The REA states 11 sf of concrete at $3.00, not $3.50.	This is not a bid; it is merely an estimate of what we feel the cost will be. The contractor will provide a detailed breakdown of cost in his bid for the work.
