TRAVEL AND EXPENSES FOR STUDENTS TRAVELING AT NRC EXPENSE:

For those States that have requested that NRC continue funding their travel to training and have received notice in writing that NRC will continue to fund reasonable training and travel expenses for fiscal year 1997, they should follow the instructions below for Federal travel orders:

TRAVEL: If you travel by air, you must call Carlson Wagonlit Travel, (202) 554-1850, to make your flight reservations. You must use Carlson or you may not be reimbursed for your plane ticket. Your tickets will be mailed to you about a week before the course begins. If you travel by car, you will be reimbursed at a rate of $0.31 per mile, with the total payment not to exceed the minimum government airfare. For those participants that fly, taxi or courtesy van service will take you to the hotel.

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission has received approval from the General Services Administration to allow State employees who are able to obtain a special discount (i.e., a lower fare than is available from Carlson Wagonlit Travel) through their State travel agency to purchase airline tickets themselves and be reimbursed via their travel voucher. In order to use your own State travel agency, it must be confirmed that Carlson Wagonlit Travel is not able to obtain that same class ticket for the same price. Before purchasing your own ticket, please contact Brenda Usilton at (301) 414-2348 in order to assure the proper procedures are followed.

EXPENSES: State participants traveling on Federal orders will be reimbursed for expenses in accordance with Federal travel regulations. A voucher will be provided to you at the course. Receipts are necessary to claim any expenses of $25.00 or more. Telephone calls will not be reimbursed by NRC. The per diem rate for the Oak Ridge, TN area is $34.00 for meals and miscellaneous expenses. The maximum lodging rate including taxes is $97.00 per day.

Any questions about, or changes in, travel should be directed to Ms. Brenda Usilton at (301) 415-2348. Any questions on the course should be made to Dennis Sollenberger at (301) 415-2819.

TRAVEL AND EXPENSES FOR STUDENTS TRAVELING AT NRC EXPENSE:

For those States that have requested that NRC continue funding their travel to training and have received notice in writing that NRC will continue to fund reasonable training and travel expenses for fiscal year 1997, they should follow the instructions below for Federal travel orders:

TRAVEL: If you travel by air, you must call Carlson Wagonlit Travel, (202) 554-1850, to make your flight reservations. You must use Carlson or you may not be reimbursed for your plane ticket. Your tickets will be mailed to you about a week before the course begins. If you travel by car, you will be reimbursed at a rate of $0.31 per mile, with the total payment not to exceed the minimum government airfare. For those participants that fly, taxi or courtesy van service will take you to the hotel.

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission has received approval from the General Services Administration to allow State employees who are able to obtain a special discount (i.e., a lower fare than is available from Carlson Wagonlit Travel) through their State travel agency to purchase airline tickets themselves and be reimbursed via their travel voucher. In order to use your own State travel agency, it must be confirmed that Carlson Wagonlit Travel is not able to obtain that same class ticket for the same price. Before purchasing your own ticket, please contact Brenda Usilton at (301) 414-2348 in order to assure the proper procedures are followed.

EXPENSES: State participants traveling on Federal orders will be reimbursed for expenses in accordance with Federal travel regulations. A voucher will be provided to you at the course. Receipts are necessary to claim any expenses of $25.00 or more. Telephone calls will not be reimbursed by NRC. The per diem rate for the Oak Ridge, TN area is $34.00 for meals and miscellaneous expenses. The maximum lodging rate including taxes is $97.00 per day.

Any questions about, or changes in, travel should be directed to Ms. Brenda Usilton at (301) 415-2348. Any questions on the course should be made to Dennis Sollenberger at (301) 415-2819.
