Mr. L. C. Rouse, Chief
Fuel Processing and Fabrication Branch
Division of Fuel Cycle and Material Safety
Nuclear Regulatory Commission
Washington, D. C. 20555

Dear Mr. Rouse:

This is to acknowledge receipt of the applicant's Environmental Report for the Atlas Minerals Moab Uranium Mill in Moab, Utah. The Advisory Council on Historic Preservation welcomes the opportunity to review such background material prior to the issuance of an environmental statement for the project. However, Nuclear Regulatory Commission should be aware that pursuant to its responsibilities under Section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, the Council will be unable to comment substantively on the environmental statement unless it contains sufficient documentation detailing the following information:

- I. Compliance with Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (16 U.S.C. 470f, as amended, 90 Stat. 1320). The Council must have evidence that the most recent listing of the National Register of Historic Places has been consulted (see Federal Register, February 1, 1977, and monthly supplements each first Tuesday thereafter), that all cultural resources which will be affected have been professionally identified, and that either of the following conditions is satisfied:
 - A. If no property included in or eligible for inclusion in the National Register is affected by the project a section detailing this determination must appear in the statement.
 - B. If a property included in or eligible for inclusion in the National Register is affected by the project, the statement must contain an account of steps taken in compliance with Section 106, as amended, and a comprehensive discussion of the contemplated effects on the property. The "Procedures for the Protection of Historic and Cultural Properties" (36 C.F.R. Part 800) detail the steps a Federal agency must take to determine effect and comply with Section 106, as amended.

II. Contact with the State Historic Preservation Officer.

The "Procedures for the Protection of Historic and Cultural Properties" (36 C.F.R. Part 800) for compliance with Section 106, as amended, of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 require the Federal agency to demonstrate consultation with the appropriate State Historic Preservation Officer commensurate with the effect on cultural properties identified. The State Historic Preservation Officer for Utah is Michael T. Miller, Executive Director, 104 State Capitol, Salt Lake City, Utah 84114.

Should you have any questions or require any additional assistance, please contact Brit Allan Storey of the Council's Denver staff at P. O. Box 25085, Denver, Colorado 80225, or (303) 234-4946, an FTS number.

Sincerely yours,

Louis S. Wall
