Gentlemen:

You hold an NRC material license (No. 22-20434-02) issued to Endotronics, Inc., for possession and use of nuclear material for in-vitro studies and laboratory research.

Our March 11, 1994, letter, notified you that an additional $660 was required for your license for the application fee (copy enclosed).

The license is also subject to annual fees. On November 16, 1996, you were billed annual fee Invoice AM0845-97, $5,100.00 (copy enclosed) with interest, penalties and late charges accruing since then. The total due now for the annual fee is $5,388.15 (see enclosure).

Failure to remit payment for both the unpaid application fee and delinquent annual fee total ($6,048.15) within 10 days from today, will result in your license being suspended by Order and the delinquent debts referred to the U. S. Department of the Treasury for collection.

Sincerely,

(signed) Diane B. Dandois
