RE: Trijicon Allegation

Please find attached a copy of Michele Burgess' evaluation of the information provided by Trijicon regarding failure types and rates of Trijicon's tritium gunsights. I agree that there is no indication of a product quality problem with regard to radiation safety or meeting the radiation safety criteria of 10 CFR 32.22. This issue appears to be a consumer satisfaction issue, and the allegor should be referred to the Better Business Bureau, or other appropriate group. This information should close out this allegation.
