LILCO's Proposed Schedule for Submission of Information on Realism Issues

Gentlemen:

This supplements LILCO's March 1 scheduling submission, with respect to realism-related issues. Upon review of the transcript of the telephone conference of February 25 and the Board's Order of February 29 (particularly ¶¶ 8-11), LILCO has tentatively concluded that the most productive way of implementing the Board's requests would be to assemble all of the record and decisional citations and other bases for its conclusions on realism-related issues in a form suitable for evidentiary submission in this proceeding. LILCO believes that it can accomplish this task by April 8, and perhaps earlier.

LILCO could compile a more skeletal summation of the bases of its conclusions, as in a listing of points and authorities, by an earlier date, probably about March 21. If the latter kind of format was what the Board had in mind, LILCO will attempt to comply with such an earlier date.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald P. Irwin
