

PUBLIC SUBMISSION

As of: 6/4/21 9:08 AM Received: June 03, 2021 Status: Pending_Post Tracking No. kpg-utkg-egmk Comments Due: July 01, 2021 Submission Type: API

Docket: NRC-2017-0022
Industrial Radiographic Operations and Training

Comment On: NRC-2017-0022-0001
Industrial Radiographic Operations and Training

Document: NRC-2017-0022-DRAFT-0001
Comment on FR Doc # 2021-11436

Submitter Information

Name: Leo Bakersmith
Address:
Orlando, FL, 32818
Email: leo.bakersmith@flhealth.gov
Phone: (850)528-5968

General Comment

I would think that maybe a communications tool like a radio or some other way of contacting the assistant would meet the intent. If needed the other radiographer could come to the aid if needed. Dead of night after every other worker has exited, if one person can observe all the boundaries, I don't see a reason to have to always have two people watching the ropes.