Mr. Brouillette, please accept my belated congratulations on your selection as DOE Secretary. While I do not know you well, the limited time spent with you during my interview reaffirmed all of the accolades associated with your name and over your career. I wish you the best in this next endeavor. Mr. Colgary, while missed at the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, remains a close friend. I wish you both the greatest success.

Congratulations Sir.

Funny, as I write this I am listening to a USAA add. Timing.
