Dear Mr. Chairman Hanson:

The U.S. Office of Government Ethics (OGE) provides the heads of each executive branch agency with year-end status reports regarding annual financial disclosure reports which are subject to OGE's certification. I am pleased to report that your agency has successfully completed the 2021 filing cycle.

Financial disclosure is the executive branch's primary tool for identifying and resolving conflicts of interest on the part of executive branch officials. Through the financial disclosure process, OGE and executive branch agencies assure the President, the Congress, and the public that officials at the highest levels of government are free from conflicts of interest. OGE thanks you, your senior leaders, and your agency's ethics officials for fully supporting OGE's review process and for making annual financial disclosure a priority.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Zobler:

The U.S. Office of Government Ethics (OGE) is providing the head of each executive branch agency with a year-end status report regarding annual financial disclosure reports subject to OGE's certification. See OGE PA-21-02 (2021). Enclosed is a copy of the status report letter from OGE's Director to the head of your agency.

Thank you for your diligent work in completing the 2021 filing cycle for annual financial disclosure reports subject to OGE's certification. Due to your efforts, OGE is happy to be able to report that your agency successfully completed the 2021 filing cycle.

If you have any questions, please contact Megan V. Granahan (202-482-9204, mvgranah@oge.gov) or me (202-482-9205, djapol@oge.gov). Thank you again for your attention to the financial disclosure program.

Sincerely,

David J. Apol
