Clyde,

The NRC staff is still anticipating the results of the 50.69 peer review. Additionally, the last update you provided indicated an agreement to use a plant HCLPF of 0.15g and follow the Farley approach to calculate SLERF. Our understanding is that you are still working on re-analysis. I would like an update on both actions as they have impacted our review schedules significantly. The 50.69 review will be delayed beyond 1 year and will be reported to Congress with justification. The TSTF-505 review is also in danger of extending beyond the 1 year metric as it hinges on the results of the 50.69 re-analysis.

Thanks,
Jason
